Flowers for Algernon, by Daniel Keyes
Categorically Intelligent

Intelligence can be categorized into different styles, or ways of using knowledge. Generally, intelligence is categorized with these labels:

a. Logical-Mathematical
b. Linguistic
c. Bodily-Kinesthetic
d. Visual-Spatial
e. Musical-Rhythmic
f. Interpersonal
g. Intrapersonal
h. Multiple

Directions: Match the people below with their primary intelligence or intelligences. Be prepared to defend your answers.

1. ____ Albert Einstein
2. ____ Wolfgang Mozart
3. ____ Mohammed Ali
4. ____ Stephen King
5. ____ Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.
6. ____ Vincent Van Gogh
7. ____ Martha Stewart
8. ____ Math Teacher
9. ____ Language Arts Teacher
10. ____ Geography Teacher
11. ____ Mark Twain
12. ____ Dr. Phil
13. ____ Mother Teresa
14. ____ Dan Moreno
15. ____ Tiger Woods
16. ____ Bill Gates
Flowers for Algernon, by Daniel Keyes
Categorically Intelligent

Directions: Match each act with the ideal intelligence category.

1. ____ Join the Peace Corp, help out with the Red Cross
2. ____ Become a translator for the United Nations
3. ____ Enter paintings in local contests
4. ____ Counsel someone on the marital problems
5. ____ Compose a poem to be made into a song
6. ____ Try-out for the 2006 Olympic Team in swimming
7. ____ Desire to become an accountant (CPA)
8. ____ Desire to work overseas to assist people in need of learning English through art work and song in which during this time counseling them about adaptation with transition in a whole different economy while traveling by foot ten miles a day, rough terrain, to get there.

a. Logical-Mathematical
b. Linguistic
c. Bodily-Kinesthetic
d. Visual-Spatial
e. Musical-Rhythmic
f. Interpersonal
g. Intrapersonal
h. Multiple

I Can Help!

Directions: Complete the sentence with the appropriate intelligence(s).

1. If you were having trouble making a poem rhyme or have rhythm you might ask someone who has_________________ intelligence.
2. If you were having trouble with a boyfriend and needed some advice, you might ask someone with ______________ intelligence.
3. If you were having trouble with selecting the best credit card that would give me the best financial benefits, you might ask someone with __________________ intelligence.
4. If you were only able to draw stick people, someone with __________________ intelligence might be able to help you.
5. If you needed someone to help with a charity, you might ask someone with __________ intelligence to help.
6. If you needed strategies on how to run for a longer distance, you would ask someone with ______________ intelligence.
7. If you needed help reading something in Spanish, you might ask someone with __________ intelligence to help.