Faith resources to help you and your student navigate this time together and in faith and love for Jesus Christ

Dear Green Wave Parents, Students and Friends,

As we go through this time where our faith has taken on somewhat of different form, it can be difficult to know where and how to begin in creating a new faith routine. This newsletter will simply help to provide you with tools and resources to grow or stay close to Jesus Christ and His Church, even when we are physically distant from the sacraments and the faith community.

Here are a few links for parents and students alike, as we make this journey to Good Friday and our Lord's Resurrection on Easter Sunday:

First, if you haven't signed up to receive the daily readings in your email inbox, the US Conference of Catholic Bishops will do just that. <http://www.usccb.org/subscribe/daily-readings-email-subscription-form.cfm>

Most, if not all of the parishes in our area, are live-streaming their Holy Week services. Check your parish website to see times and how to view it online. Word on Fire ministries, led by Bishop Robert Barron,

Auxiliary Bishop of the Diocese of Los Angeles will be providing live-streams of their Holy Week services at: <https://www.wordonfire.org/daily-mass/>

Archbishop José Gomez, president of the USCCB, has asked the faithful to join him in prayer on Good Friday in the Litany to the Sacred Heart of Jesus: <https://www.vaticannews.va/en/church/news/2020-04/usccb-national-prayer-good-friday-plenary-indulgence.html>

NBC 4 in Columbus will be airing Easter Mass from St. Joseph's Cathedral. Even in the midst of an unprecedented situation such as this, the Lord continues to give us opportunities for evangelization. This is a tremendous platform for our faith! <https://www.nbc4i.com/news/local-news/nbc4-to-air-easter-sunday-mass-from-st-joseph-cathedral-in-columbus/>

Social Media feeds of the week: St. Gabriel Radio: @stgabrielradio on Instagram, @StGabrielRadio on Twitter, on your radio at 820 AM and stgabrielradio.com

Sr. Theresa Aletheia of the Daughters of St. Paul: @pursuedbytruth on Twitter and @pursuedbytruth on Instagram

And of course, Pope Francis: @Pontifex on Twitter and @franciscus on Instagram

Lord, as we come again upon the holiest week of the year, let us never forget, that in your pain of Good Friday, you suffered so that we may have eternal life. In knowing earthly anguish, you gave us the grace to overcome our own anguish, our own pain and suffering. Lord, be with those in pain right now, whatever that pain may be, for you are the God of goodness and peace and mercy. May we always know your loving kindness and faithfulness, even in the midst of hardship. We as for your blessing upon your Church and its faithful, wherever they may be. May we trust in the love of your Resurrection, Lord, always. We make these prayers in your name,

Amen

May God Bless you and your families this Holy Week. Stay safe!

May we look to the Blessed Mother, who held her son after His death on the cross, to find strength during the time of Coronavirus.
